

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL.

BY MCCLANAHAN, TROUSDALE & DILL.

Daily Appeal.

CENTRAL AMERICA AND CUBA.
The struggle of England and France in South America has got right to the bone. These powers may yet sell design of checking our progress. This is what may soon become the question. The alliance with France does not represent the alliance with England, nor the alliance with Cuba in both hemispheres. And the outcome of English policy in Central America and Cuba.

In 1854, when it was first reported,

England that Sebastian had fallen, the French were still neutral.

"Our transatlantic enemies will become a trifling affair," said the French minister.

The fact is that the French are not neutral, but they do not yet regard the alliance with France as an alliance with England.
